

On Thursday, our last day, we got up at 6:00 am again but had to drive off already at 6:30 am because we all met at the parking spot at 7:30 am. So we arrived, loaded our bags back into the bus and moved off by train. At 9:45 am we went to Madame Tussaud's. It was so exiting to see all the stars, politicians and heroes. We saw for example Michael Jackson, Donald Trump and heroes like Hulk or Spiderman. There was also a 4D cinema with a Marvel short film and in another room they showed how to make dolls like those at Madame Tussaud's. After this we bought something at the shop, ate something and then went to the London Eye by Tube. The view from above (135 meters) was just beautiful. We saw many of the sights of London like Big Ben. When we were back down, we had much time to go shopping one last time. We took the Tube and went to many different shops like the Hard Rock Café and bought a lot of stuff. Then we took the Tube again to go back and meet all the others. At 9:00 pm we were finally back at the coach and totally exhausted from the day. We went back to Dover by coach and took the ferry to Calais. After another 2 hours we arrived and went back to Germany. We arrived at home in Hettstedt at 3:00 pm, got our bags and headed home. And so our trip to London finished. (Veronique Otto 10.1)
