

My most impressive experience

Celine Klause (10.4)

My most impressive experience was the musical on Thursday . It began at 7pm in The Dominion Theatre. In front of this theatre there is a big golden statue of Freddy Mercury, the frontsinger of "Queen". His most famous song is "We will rock you", which is even the title of the musical.

The musical is about the world in the future in which the globalisation is complete , where only Gaga-Girls and boys who look like those girls live.

The Killer-Queen (Brenda Edwards) reigns there with her son Khashoggi (Alasdair Harvey) and fights against the rebels. These are a few young persons who want to know what rock is. The reason is that they want to live it.

They don't know rock anymore, it died a long time before because of the High School Musical. The final song is "We will rock you". With it they fight against the Gaga-Pop-music to save the world!

The two rebels who are the main characters are Scaramoush (Rachel Wooding) and Galileo (Oliver Tompsett) who fell in love with each other.

When we, a few persons of our group, my friends Lisa and Michelle too, sat there in the big hall of the Dominion, the lights turned off and the first actors began to sing, we were so surprised at the great voices of the actors. I know that this program needs a lot of concentration and ability to sing like that! So I was very amazed to see that. The way they sang together was so great!

photos: wewillrockyou.co.uk

Lisa Simon (10.1)

I liked the London Dungeon most. It was very interesting to learn about London's history. It's at London Bridge. I was there with Fabian, Michelle and Celine. The others went to the Tower Bridge Experience, but the Dungeon is more popular. When we wanted to buy tickets, a woman with a red cloak standing next to me. I wanted to look into her face and she screamed into my ear "BEWARE". You have to go from one room to another and there is an encased person, who tells you a part of the story. I liked the story of Sweeney Todd most. It was a barber, who killed his costumers and sold them to Mrs. Lovett's pie shop. She crushed the meat and put it into the pies. (The first thing I did after arriving home: Watching the movie with Johnny Depp). There were many brutal ways how they killed people. Turn the tongue three times and ear it out. It was perfect. I would go there at any time.

Lisa Holenburg (10.3)

The trip to London was very exciting, funny and great. Best of all I liked it at Madame Tussauds. The wax museum is located in Marylebone Road, in the centre of London and we all went there. In London it is much nicer than in Germany. The people there look very friendly and it was a very big pleasure to take a photo with them. I've already been there there and can only say this time it was quieter, because less people were there what I liked very much. I was there with Lisa, Jonas, Fabian & Max. We had a very nice afternoon. The 4D cinema in the connection was also a very special and new experience.

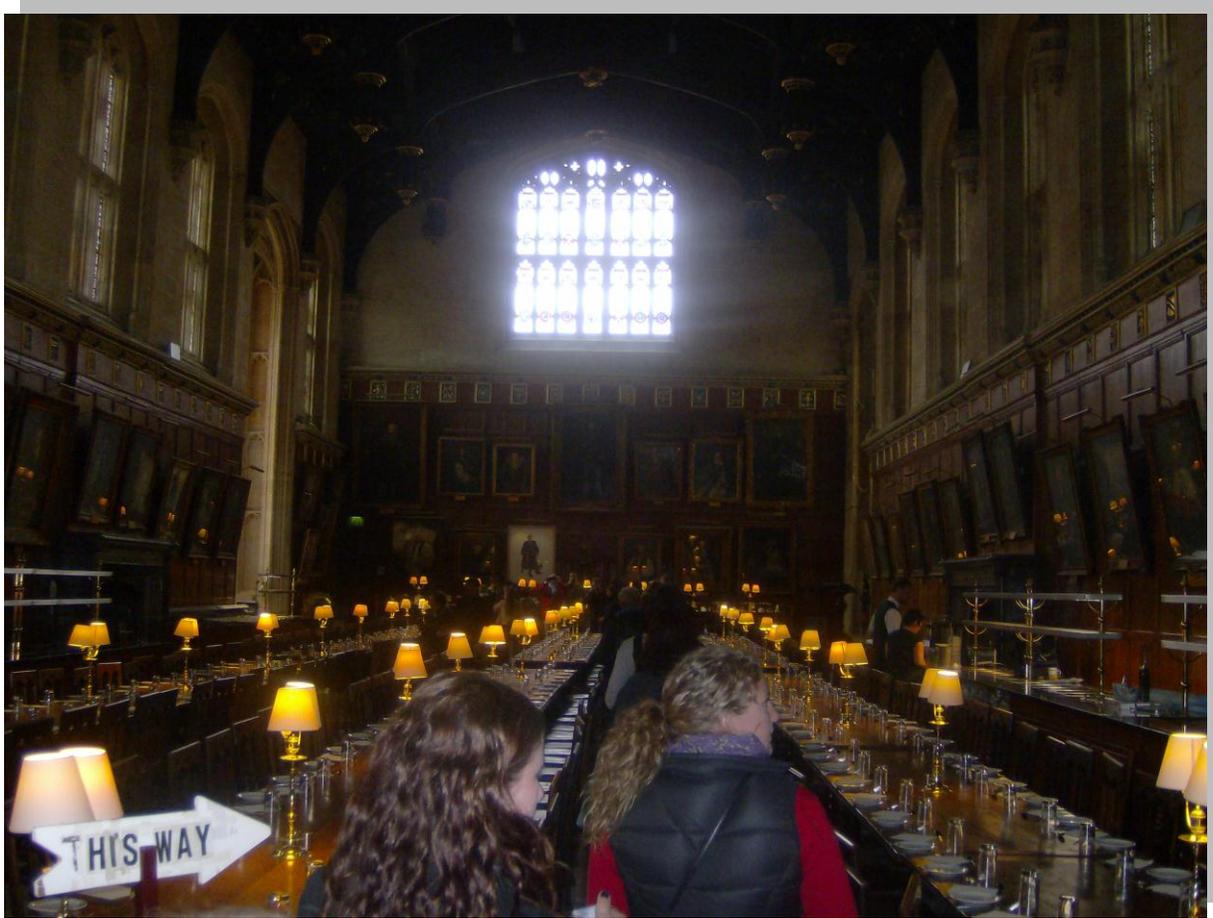

Jonas and me with James Bond/Daniel Craig. :-P

Maximillian Ott (10.3)

My most impressive experience was on Wednesday. At 2 p.m. we went to the Christ Church College. The Christ Church College is in Oxford and it is very famous. There the well-known Harry Potter films were produced, too. The dining room of the college and the staircase were a setting in the Harry Potter parts. We visited the buildings and some of the rooms all together and this was my most impressive experience because I saw each Harry Potter film and now I saw the rooms in reality.

Fabian Pelleter (10.3)

My most impressive experience was the visit at the famous musical We Will Rock You in the Dominion Theatre on Thursday. There they performed great songs of Queen and Elton John combined in a fantastic story. I was there with ten other students from my school and Mrs. Tetzl. For me it was the best musical I have ever seen in my life because I think that the atmosphere there was very unique. In particular at the end when everybody stood up and applauded the song "We will rock you" I was deeply impressed. It was an amazing feeling. In my opinion the story of We Will Rock You had a good setting too. All in all it was a perfect end of an unforgettable journey.

