

"As you like it -abridged" by William Shakespeare

"As you like it - abridged" is a play where Shakespeare's characters meet. Going through the text entertained, educated. Although, however multi-talented the two actors were, they definitely required help from the students by creating soundscapes, becoming scenery and, most importantly, speaking some of the most famous words in history.

